

The Continuous Delivery Foundation

CD.FOUNDATION

ACCELERATING SOFTWARE DELIVERY WITH OPEN SOURCE

Our mission is to improve the world's capacity to deliver software with security and speed. We help our members become high performing software delivery organizations while leveraging open source.

Our Innovative Members are shaping the industry

Our member organizations are enterprises, end users, vendors, start-ups and other organizations who are committed to collaborating in open source and recognize that Continuous Delivery is a key differentiator. We are grateful for their support in advancing our mission.

BECOME A CD.FOUNDATION MEMBER

Whether you are using, selling or creating Continuous Delivery technologies, your membership at the Continuous Delivery Foundation grants you unfettered access to proven methodologies, real-time innovation and a seat at the table to steer the conversation.

We offer three levels of paid Membership to suit the needs and resources of our Members and their different levels of participation, profile and size.

$100,000

Tailored for any organization aiming to maximize their strategic involvement in driving the future of continuous delivery

END USER

$2,500 - $15,000*

Geared towards organizations that do not sell CD related services and who want to primarily participate in our end user council

GENERAL

$5,000 - $30,000*

Suitable for start-ups, and organizations with a general interest in participation and contribution.

* Fees scale based on number of employees. See table on page 5.

We also have an Associate Membership for non-profits, universities, open source projects and government entities. Contact us for more information:
